

BROWN UNIVERSITY Providence, Rhode Island • 02912

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

February 18, 1982

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Bill:

Just a short line to advise you that I have finally recovered from my series of encounters with the surgeons, and I am back at work for my final semester before retiring. [redacted] and I are seriously thinking about returning to the Washington area after retiring and so there may be an opportunity to see more of you than exists at present. Needless to say, I follow your activities and those affecting the Agency with great interest.

Again, my appreciation for taking the time out of your busy life to come to Brown and give one of the Olin Lectures. It is regrettable that a handful (out of 1,000) of students, some of whom were not even enrolled at Brown, used the occasion for a disturbance; and I join [redacted] in apologizing for the University.

Again, I thank you for coming and wish you the very best of success.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature box]
